Double Deceiver downs Rebuff; Boudoir Hanover puts her rivals to sleep at Red Mile

By Kimberly French for Red Mile

Lexington, KY --- On Sunday (Sept. 11) Red Mile hosted two $80,000 fourth round legs of the Kentucky Championship series, two $30,000 fourth round legs of the Kentucky Commonwealth series and two $15,000 fourth round legs of the Kentucky Golden Rod series for sophomore female and male trotters and pacers. Defending Kentucky champion Double Deceiver dug down and captured his contest by a nose while Boudoir Hanover showed who was the boss in their respective divisions of the Championship series.

Double Deceiver (David Miller) rebounded from an unusual performance last week to win his sire stakes division for sophomore male pacing colts by in 1:51. Golden Wall As (Tony Hall) and Rebuff (Tim Tetrick) were second and third.

Golden Wall As grabbed the lead from the beginning of the mile and cut the first fraction of :29 until Rebuff assumed command. The son of Muscle Hill and Tetrick led the field of seven through a half of :56:1 and three-quarters in 1:23.4. Golden Wall As was waiting patiently in the pocket with Double Deceiver biding his time in third.

Double Deceiver and Golden Wall As simply passed Rebuff in the drive for the wire.

Bred by Steve Stewart and Oakwood Farms, Double Deceiver is by Cantab Hall and out of Sarcy. He was purchased for $17,000 at the 2020 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by Pinske Stables and Makenna Pinske.

The gelding is trained by Carter Pinske. He has now earned $503,479 from a record of 20-9-7-0.

Double Deceiver paid $9.96 to win. The gelding was sixth in his last appearance in Championship action on Aug. 28.

Boudoir Hanover (Todd McCarthy) took the lead shortly after the first split and defeated Lookatmyrapsheet (Yannick Gingras) and Msdinosia Blugrass (Dexter Dunn) to capture the Championship division for 3-year-old pacing fillies in 1:50.

The regally bred daughter of Captaintreacherous-Bedroomconfessions took control after a :28 first quarter. The filly led through splits of :56 and 1:24 prior to hitting the finish line in first place.

Boudoir Hanover was bred by Riverview Breeders and Visionary Breeding. She is owned by Riverview Racing, Alagna Racing, Caviart Farms, D. Plouffe and S. Head. Trained by Tony Alagna, Boudoir Hanover has now earned $503,001. Her record stands at 21-7-5-2.

The filly was a $200,000 2020 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase.

Boudoir Hanover paid $3.22 to her supporters.

Queen Of Success (Andrew McCarthy) and Just For Trix (D. Miller) won the Commonwealth divisions for sophomore male and female trotters and pacers.

Aggioranamento (Tetrick) and Fly Like An Angel (Gingras) scored in the two Golden Rod series divisions.

Sire stakes action culminates on Sunday (Sept. 18) with the Kentucky Championship final. It continues Monday (Sept. 19) with the Commonwealth series final and Tuesday (Sept. 20) with the Golden Rod series final.

First post is 1 p.m. EDT.
